

Tom Stoddart Pty Ltd was founded in Queensland in 1959 and continues today as a 100% Australian owned Stoddart family business. The Stoddart business has over 23,000 m2 of factory floor space in three factories in Brisbane, one in Crestmead and two in Sunnybank.

Stoddart manufacture, import and export food-service equipment, architectural metalwork products and plumbing fixtures.

In addition to the three factories, Stoddart own and operate warehouses in Sydney, Melbourne, Adelaide and Perth. Through this strategically located infrastructure and together with the national network of sales and service personnel, Stoddart provides support to businesses throughout Australia and the Asia Pacific region.

With the strong team of 350 employees, the high degree of technology and mechanization, a vast experience in metal fabrication and 50 years of stainless steel industry experience,

Stoddart Manufacturing is undoubtedly positioned as a leader in producing innovative, premium quality products and enjoys the reputation as "easy, helpful and reliable".

Stoddart Manufacturing can provide a whole range of stainless steel and galvanized steel products for all sorts of major projects.

Our business is to help you control your capital and ongoing operational costs, manage your labour expenses and above all, to help you to do your business effectively.

